CMS Product Comparison - Features Matrix

	Product 1	Product 2	Product 3	Product 4	Product 5
Usability Requirements:
Out of the box software
Solid technologies
Separates look and feel from content from pages
Wide variety of predefined content types
Allow for the addition of content types specific to our business.
Forums module, with a customized set of forum rules.
Completely web-enabled – standard browser (IE 5.5 or above)
Non-technical page creation and content editing
Single-sourced, shared across pages and sites.
User-friendly Explorer-style interface
Full-text searching of content and files
Page duplication feature
Easily integrate with custom- and third-party applications
Archiving feature for content
Support Requirements:
Quick and easy Installation of the admin software
Full range of support services available:
Custom programming
Integration of third-party applications
Implementation services
Maintenance and support contract services
Software upgrades
Excellent, process-based user documentation
Excellent user training
Workflow Requirements:
Flexible workflow with different levels and types of approval
2 parts to workflow:
1. Email notification
2. Personalized page
Workflow integrated with system security
Workflow applies to conent, pages, pictures and files
Security Requirements:
Integrate with our existing security architecture
Centralized management of users and roles
Integrate with IIS challenge / response
Multilevel security, (pages, content, files, and sites).
Customized view based on login permissions
Dynamic Features:
Dynamically generate non-proprietary web site
Real-time update of pages, content, and templates.
Debut and expiration of pages and content
Navigation updates automatically
Personalized page display
Wizard-based page creation
Design Requirements:
Professional-looking, highly-usable admin tool
Unlimited number of templates per site
System enforces design standards
Multiple options available for menu and navigation style					